National housing market trends

House prices

Over half of all properties are selling at or above their asking price according to the latest reports released by Rightmove and the NAEA, the highest proportion ever recorded as the price of property coming to market hits a record high for the third consecutive month.

Economy

The base rate of interest has been raised by 0.25% from 0.75% to 1%, its highest rate since 2009 as the Bank of England tries to tackle the surging cost of living. This is the fourth consecutive rise since December.

Transactions

Close to 115,000 sales took place in March, the third highest March in the last decade (after 2021 and 2016). The HMRC estimate over 330,000 sales have taken place in the first quarter of 2022.

Demand

Mortgage approvals in March remained steady, close to 71,000 mortgages were approved, 9% higher than the 2016-2020 average (Bank of England). At 2.05% the average mortgage rate remains lower than a year ago.

Annual change in private rents by region

Investment

Rental values continue to rise across all regions of the UK, annual growth currently strongest in the East and South West. Demand for property continues to outpace supply creating sustained pressure on prices.
